
Historical execution: every FCCD run was scheduled up front and globally randomized; the analysis was hierarchical, not adaptive.